A Message from Fr. Brian

The Apostle Paul writes in our 2nd reading for this Sunday's Solemnity of Christ the King: "Let us give thanks to the Father" (Col 1:12). This Thursday we give thanks in a particular way as we celebrate Thanksgiving. It is a day in which, as a Church, as a nation, as communities, as families, and as individuals, we thank Almighty God for His Providential care over us and the many blessings which He continually offers us.

We can even be thankful for the things in our life which might discourage us. I get lots of faith-based e-mails. A while back I received one that was about this very subject of gratitude toward God, gratitude even for the things that don't at first seem like blessings. Oftentimes we complain about the struggles and inconveniences in our lives. But are we thankful for the blessings that might be hidden in those struggles and inconveniences and are we grateful for them?

The writer of the e-mail gives some examples (I recited some of these in a recent Sunday homily):

- I am thankful for the mess to clean up after a party because it means I have been surrounded by friends.
- I am thankful for the taxes I pay because it means that I am employed.
- I am thankful for the clothes that fit a little too snug because it means I have had enough to eat.
- I am thankful for my shadow that watches me work because it means I am out in the sunshine.
- I am thankful for a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning, gutters that need fixing because it means I have a home.
- I am thankful for all the complaining I do about the government because it means we have freedom of speech.
- I am thankful for the spot I find at the far end of the parking lot because it means I am capable of walking.
- I am thankful for my big heating bill because it means I am warm.
- I am thankful for the lady behind me in church who sings off-key because it means I can hear.
- I am thankful for the piles of laundry and ironing because it means my loved-ones are nearby.
- I am thankful for weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day because it means I have been productive.
- I am thankful for the alarm that goes off early in the morning because it means I am alive.

You get the idea. It's simply a matter of trying to find the silver lining around every cloud and being grateful to God for all His blessings.

Of course, we know that thanking God isn't just for Thanksgiving Day. God gives us 86,400 seconds every day. We ought to use a few of those seconds each and every day to thank Him for His generous love. It's called having an attitude of gratitude.

On behalf of the clergy and staff of Our Lady of Sorrows, I wish you a very blessed and Happy Thanksgiving!

Thankful Blessings,

THE SACRIFICIAL GIVING OF OUR PARISHIONERS

Reflections on Catechism

2635 Since Abraham, intercession – asking on behalf of another – has been characteristic of a heart attuned to God’s mercy. In the age of the Church, Christian intercession participates in Christ’s, as an expression of the communion of saints. In intercession, he who prays looks “not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others,” even to the point of praying for those who do him harm.

Holiday Time at the Food Pantry

The OLS Food Pantry is distributing Christmas food packages on Saturday, December 14. As we've done for the last several holidays, we are distributing ShopRite gift cards in lieu of turkeys or hams. More flexible to meet our patrons' wide-ranging needs, and easier on everyone's backs. If you'd like to donate cards, $10 denominations work best. Special foods for Christmas include coffee (1 pound containers), oil (canola, veg, olive) in 32 oz containers (no glass), and cookies. Food donations can be left on the little brown desk outside our door. Monetary donations can be dropped off at the Parish Office. We've updated our Volunteer Sign Up Genius (<http://bit.ly/OLSPANTRY>) with dates through April 2020. There are many options for volunteering, and we hope that you'll consider joining us in our mission. Any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Kate at katecahill50@gmail.com. Thanks so much!

First Reconciliation Retreat Coming Up

Our retreat will begin in the upper church at 8:45 am and will end around 11:45 am. One parent is asked to accompany each student on this important milestone in their sacramental preparation journey. All students should have completed their First Reconciliation workbook and corresponding worksheets prior to attending the retreat. Please bring all completed worksheets to the retreat for collection. This year we will also be collecting food for the OLS food pantry. Please bring a canned good with you to the retreat to help support this worthwhile program.

Our First Reconciliation service will take place on Saturday, December 14th at 10:00 am.

Advent

A Time to Prepare

Advent Reflection Talk

December 2, Monday, 7:00 pm

Christmas is all about the entry of our Savior into the world, as the Virgin Mary gives birth to the Christ Child. Begin to prepare for that by joining us for our Advent Reflection Talk, which this year will be given by Dr. Mary Marron-Corwin, Director of Newborn Medicine & Pediatrics in Harlem, NY and Professor of Pediatrics at Columbia University. She is a highly respected and honored physician, lecturer, teacher, and author. She has also been named Catholic Laywoman of the Year by the New York Catholic newspaper.

The Blessed Mother's pregnancy was, of course, a miracle. Dr. Marron-Corwin experienced 3 miracles of her own during her 3 at-risk pregnancies. Learn how her life of faith helped her to discern what to do in those difficult situations. We promise that you will be very inspired by how one woman has learned to live out her Christian faith in real and challenging ways. Prepare for the Christmas miracle by hearing about 3 other miracles!
