Fr. Brian's Bulletin Message from May 11th

"Do you remember the day of your First Communion? I do and still have the Rosary I received that day as a gift from my parents. I love that Rosary, but I love even more the gift of the Eucharist that I receive every time I celebrate Mass. This weekend, 42 young people of our parish received their First Holy Communion. We pray that they will fall completely in love with Jesus, whom they received for the very first time in the Eucharist, and that they will desire to be fed by Him in Holy Communion every single week at Mass. May every time they receive the Eucharist remind them of their First Communion and how much God loves them."

Amen, Fr. Brian! These 42 kids were an absolute joy to work with. Thank you to all of the OLS parish catechists, school teachers and family members who helped to prepare these amazing kids to receive Jesus in the Eucharist.

Mother's Day May Crowning

It was wonderful to see so many of our First Communicants return to help our parish crown Mary. Participating in a May crowning is a great way to help kids recognize Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth. (The next time you're in the church, be sure to show your kids the large window over the choir loft depicting the Coronation of Mary.)

Do you have a statue of Mary in your home? Why not assemble a crown and do your own May crowning? It can be super simple - or as elaborate as you want. Looking for some great Marian hymns to play at your crowning? Try Bring Flowers of the Rarest \(Queen of May\) or Tis the Month of Our Mother. Some other classic favorites include Hail Holy Queen, Immaculate Mary \(Ave Maria\), or Hail Mary \(Gentle Woman\).

Homeschooling Connection

If you've been keeping up with your child's assigned work, congratulations! You're all done! If you have not been quite as diligent, please use the next few weeks to finish up the homeschooling year. Our-end-of-the-year discussion schedule will be published shortly.

Next Coffee and Donuts

Sunday, May 25th

After 10:00 am and 11:30 Masses

OLS' next Coffee and Donuts will be held the final Sunday of the month: May 25th. If you haven't attended a Coffee and Donuts yet this year, it's not too late! Socializing after Mass is a great way for your kids to further the friendships they've made during CCD - and, honestly, who doesn't like donuts!?!

Pope Leo XIV

Pope Leo XIV is the first pope from the United States of America. Robert Francis Prevost was born in 1955 in Chicago, Illinois. In 1977, he graduated from Villanova University with a degree in mathematics. He joined the Order of Saint Augustine and was ordained a priest in June of 1982. He has spent most his life outside of the United States. He has served in Peru as a missionary, a parish priest, and a bishop. He has also served in Rome as the Superior General of the Order of Saint Augustine. In 2023, he returned to Rome to serve as prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops, which is responsible for evaluating and recommending potential bishops. On May 8, 2025, Prevost was elected pope and took the name Leo XIV.

Highlights

- 1955: Born in Chicago, Illinois
- 1977: Graduated from Villanova University
- 1982: Ordained a priest of the Order of Saint Augustine
- 1985-1999: Served in various roles in Peru including as a parish priest and as a teacher at the diocesan seminary
- 2001-2013: served in Rome as Superior General of the Order of Saint Augustine
- 2014-2023: served as bishop of Suva, Peru
- 2023-2025: served as prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops and president of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America

- He is a dual citizen of the United States and Peru.
- He is fluent in English, Spanish, French, Italian, and Portuguese, and can read Latin and German.

Quotes

"We are often preoccupied with teaching doctrine, the way of living our faith, but we risk forgetting that our first task is to teach what it means to know Jesus Christ and to bear witness to our closeness to the Lord. This comes first: to communicate the beauty of the faith, the beauty and joy of knowing Jesus." (Vatican News, 2023)

"We are all in the hands of God. Therefore, without fear, united hand in hand with God and with each other we move forward. We are disciples of Christ. Christ precedes us. The world needs his light." (First Blessing of the Holy Father Leo XIV, May 8, 2025)

Pope Leo's Papal Coat of Arms

- The upper half of Pope Leo XIV's coat of arms features a blue background with a white lily or fleur-de-lis, symbolizing the Virgin Mary and also his French heritage.
- The lower half of the shield displays the book of Scripture and a pierced heart, referring to the conversion experience of St. Augustine who wrote, "You have pierced my heart with your Word."
- The motto of Pope Leo XIV, In Illo uno unum, which means "In the One, we are one," is from St. Augustine, who writes about the church's unity: "Although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one." We are many and we are one - because we are united to Him, and if our Head is in heaven, the members will follow.

Saint / Feast of the Week

St. Rita of Cascia

Feast Day: May 22nd

Patron of: Difficult Marriages, Impossible Causes,
Infertility, Parenthood

Like Elizabeth Ann Seton, Rita of Cascia was a wife, mother, widow, and member of a religious community. Her holiness was reflected in each phase of her life.

Born at Roccaporena in central Italy, Rita wanted to become a nun but was pressured at a young age into marrying a harsh and cruel man. During her 18-year marriage, she bore and raised two sons. After her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons had died, Rita tried to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Unsuccessful at first because she was a widow, Rita eventually succeeded.

Over the years, her austerity, prayerfulness, and charity became legendary. When she developed wounds on her forehead, people quickly associated them with the wounds from Christ's crown of thorns. She meditated frequently on Christ's passion. Her care for the sick nuns was especially loving. She also counseled lay people who came to her monastery.

Beatified in 1626, Rita was not canonized until 1900. She has acquired the reputation, together with Saint Jude, as a saint of impossible cases. Many people visit her tomb each year.

In the Liturgy of the Word, the Church feeds the people of God from the table of his Word. Previewing the readings before Mass is then a bit like looking over the menu before you get to a restaurant: you have a better idea of what you can expect so that you can enter into the experience more fully prepared.

And like a good discussion during a meal, discussing the readings and how they can be applied to your family's daily life helps your family to truly go out and proclaim the gospel after leaving the church.

Here are a few resources to help your family delve deeper into the Liturgy of the Word:

Catholic Trivia

Question: On May 20th, the Christian world will commemorate which event?

- A) 1700 year anniversary of the opening of the Council of Nicea
- B) the martyrdom of St. Agnes of Rome
- C) the signing of the Edict of Milan ending prosecution of Christians by the Emperor Diocletian
- D) the election of Pope St. Linus

Answer: A

On May 20, the Christian world will commemorate the 1700th anniversary of the opening of the first ecumenical council, held in Nicea in 325, which has gone down in history primarily on account of the Creed, which brings together, defines, and proclaims the faith in salvation in Jesus Christ and in the One God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Later completed by the Council of Constantinople in 381, the Nicene Creed became in practice the identity card of the professed faith of the Church.
